

CHARTERED CAPITAL AND INVESTMENT LIMITED
CODE OF CONDUCT FOR DIRECTORS

I. INTRODUCTION

This Code of Conduct has been adopted by Chartered Capital And Investment Limited to comply with the applicable rules of the Stock Exchanges where securities of the Company are listed i.e. The Bombay Stock Exchange Limited, Mumbai and Ahmedabad Stock Exchange.

The principal duty of the Board of Directors, along with management, is to ensure that the Company is well managed in the interests of its shareholders. The Board of Directors plays the central role in the Company's governance. It is the Company's decision-making authority on all matters except those reserved to shareholders or delegated to the management. The Board of Directors is not expected to assume an active role in the day-to-day management of the Company.

All Board members shall affirm compliance of this Code on an annual basis. On the basis of affirmation, Managing Director of the Company, namely, Shri Mohib N Khericha, will give the declaration to this effect and the declaration will be published in the Annual Report of the Company.

II. GUIDELINES FOR CONDUCT

Each director should seek to use due care in the performance of his/her duties, be loyal to the Company, act in good faith and in a manner such director reasonably believes to be not opposed to the best interests of the Company. A director should seek to also:-

- i) make reasonable efforts to attend Board Meetings, Committee Meetings and General Meetings of the Shareholders ;
- ii) dedicate time and attention to the Company; and
- iii) seek to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, confidentiality, obligations and corporate policies of the Company.

III. CORPORATE BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

In carrying out their duties and responsibilities, directors should avoid:

- i) appropriating corporate business opportunities for themselves that are discovered through the use of Company property or information or their position as directors;
- ii) using Company property or information, or their position as directors, for personal gain; and
- iii) competing with the Company.

A corporate business opportunity is an opportunity (1) which is in the Company's line of business or proposed expansion or diversification, (2) which the Company is financially able to undertake and (3) which may be of interest to the Company. A director who learns of such a corporate business opportunity and who wishes to avail of, it should disclose such opportunity to the Company's Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors determines that the Company does not have an actual or expected interest in such opportunity, then, and only then, may the director avail of it, provided that the director has not wrongfully utilized the Company's resources in order to acquire such opportunity.

IV. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Each director should endeavor to avoid having his or her private interests interfere with (i) the interests of the Company or (ii) his or her ability to perform his or her duties and responsibilities objectively and effectively. Directors should avoid receiving, or permitting members of their immediate family to receive, improper personal benefits from the Company, including loans from or guarantees of obligations by the Company. A director should make a full disclosure to the entire Board of any transaction or relationship that such a director reasonably expects could give rise to an actual conflict of interest with the Company and seek the Board's authorization to pursue such transactions or relationships.

It is a conflict of interest to serve as a Director of any Company that competes with the Company.

V. COMPANY PROPERTY

In carrying out their duties and responsibilities, directors should endeavor to ensure that management is causing the Company's assets, proprietary information and resources to be used by the Company and its employees only for legitimate business purposes of the Company.

VI. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Directors should maintain the confidentiality of information entrusted to them in carrying out their duties and responsibilities, except where disclosure is approved by the Company or legally mandated or if such information is in the public domain.

The Company's confidential and proprietary information shall not be inappropriately disclosed or used for the personal gain or advantage of any director or anyone other than the Company. These obligations apply not only during a Director's term, but thereafter as well.

VII. FAIR DEALING

In carrying out their duties and responsibilities, directors should endeavor to deal fairly, and should promote fair dealing by the Company, its employees and agents, with customers, suppliers and employees.

Directors should not seek to take unfair advantage of the Company through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair dealing.

VIII. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS

In carrying out their duties and responsibilities, directors should comply, and endeavor to ensure that the management is causing the Company to comply, with applicable laws, rules and regulations. In addition, if any director becomes aware of any information that he or she believes constitutes evidence of a material violation of any securities or other laws, rules or regulations applicable to the Company or the operation of its business, by the Company, any employee or another director, then such director should bring such information to the attention of the Board of Directors of the Company.

IX. INSIDER TRADING

Directors should observe all applicable laws and with respect to the purchase and sale of the Company's securities. It is the responsibility of each director to become familiar with and understand these laws and regulations.

Insider Trading generally involves the act of subscribing or buying or selling of the Company's securities, when in the possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information about the Company. It also involves disclosing any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information about the Company to others who could subscribe or buy or sell the Company's securities. Insider Trading invokes severe civil and criminal penalties not only on the Insider but also on the Company in certain circumstances under the Regulations issued in India under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) Act, 1992.

"sensitive information" is information which relates directly or indirectly to a Company and which if published is likely to materially affect the price of Securities of a Company. It is important to note that both positive and negative information could be price sensitive.

X. RELATED PARTIES

As a general rule, Directors should avoid conducting Company business with related parties as defined under applicable Accounting Rules, SEBI, Companies Act, 1956 and Securities Market

Rules. If such a related party transaction is unavoidable, director must fully disclose the nature of the such transaction to the Company.

XI. POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS

It is the Company's policy to comply fully with all local, state, foreign and other applicable laws, rules and regulations regarding political contributions. The Company's funds or assets must not be used for or be contributed to political campaigns or political practices under any circumstances without the prior approval of the Board of Directors of the Company.

XII. ENCOURAGING THE REPORTING OF ILLEGAL OR UNETHICAL BEHAVIOR

Directors should endeavor to ensure that management is causing the Company to promote ethical behavior and to encourage employees to report evidence of illegal or unethical behavior to appropriate Company personnel. Directors should endeavor to ensure that the Company will not allow retaliation against any employee who makes a good faith report about a possible violation of the Company's Code of Conduct.

XIII. OTHERS

- (i) To observe and guide the Company in maintaining highest degree of Corporate Governance.
- (ii) To inform the Company immediately about the emergence of any situation that may disqualify him / her from directorship.
- (iii) Not to hold any office or place of profits in the company by himself / herself or by his / her relatives without full disclosure of information in connection therewith.

XIV. NON-COMPLIANCE

Suspected violations of this Code may be reported to the Chairman of the Board or the Chairman of the Audit Committee. All reported violations should be appropriately investigated.

Any waiver of this Directors' Code must be approved by the Board of Directors and publicly disclosed if required by any applicable law or regulation.

XV. NO RIGHTS CREATED

This Directors' Code sets forth guidelines for conduct for the Board of Directors.

CHARTERED CAPITAL AND INVESTMENT LIMITED

Code of Ethics and Business Conduct

Applicable to Senior Management Personnel (Officers - HODs) of the Chartered Capital And Investment Limited (hereinafter referred as “the Company”)

Introduction

The Company is committed to conducting its business in accordance with the applicable laws, rules and regulations and with highest standards of business ethics. This code is intended to provide guidance and help in recognizing and dealing with ethical issues, provide mechanisms to report unethical conduct, and to help foster a culture of honesty and accountability. Each officer is expected to comply with the letter and spirit of this Code.

The officers of the Company must comply with applicable laws, rules and regulations. They must abide by the policies and procedures that govern the conduct of the Company's business. They shall act and conduct free from fraud and deception. Their responsibilities include commitment to compliance, and to maintain a work environment that encourages the stakeholders to raise concerns to the attention of the management. They shall act in good faith, responsibility, with due care, competence and diligence without misrepresenting material facts.

All Officers are expected to read and understand this Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, uphold these standards in day-to-day activities, comply with all applicable policies and procedures.

Because the principles described in this Code of Business Conduct and Ethics are general in nature, you should also review all applicable Company's rules, policies and procedures.

All Officers should sign the acknowledgement form at the end of this Code and return the form to Secretarial Department indicating that they have received, read and understood, and agree to comply with the Code.

All Officers shall certify annually that they have complied with this Code. On the basis of certification by all Officers, the Managing Director of the Company, namely, Shri Mohib N Khericha, will give the declaration to this effect and the declaration will be published in the Annual Report of the Company.

It is also necessary to circulate this Code to the employees who are working under respective Officers of the Company to read, understand and comply with this Code and enable them to use Whistle Blower mechanism as mentioned below.

Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest exists where the interest or benefits of one person or entity conflict with the interests or benefits of the Company.

A conflict situation can arise:

- A) When an officer takes action or has interests that may make it difficult to perform his or her work objectively and effectively,

- B) Any outside business activity that detracts an individual's ability to devote appropriate time and attention to his or her responsibilities with the Company,
- C) Any significant ownership interest in any supplier, customer, business associate or competitor of the Company,
- D) Any consulting or employment relationship with any supplier, customer, business associate or competitor of the Company.

The officers should be scrupulous in avoiding 'conflicts of interest' with the Company. The officers should ensure that their services do not in any manner affect the Company' interest. In case there is likely to be a conflict of interest, he/she should make full disclosure of all facts and circumstances thereof to Managing Director of the Company and a prior written approval should be obtained.

It is a conflict of interest to serve as a Director of any Company that competes with the Company. Officers and Employees must first obtain approval from the Managing Director before accepting a Directorship.

Corporate Opportunities

Officers owe a duty to the Company to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity to do so arises. Officers are expressly prohibited from:

- A) Taking for themselves personally, opportunities that are discovered through the use of Company's property, information, or position,

- C) Using Company's property, information, or position for personal gain.

Confidentiality

The officers shall maintain the confidentiality of confidential information of the Company or that of any customer, supplier or business associate of the Company to which Company has a duty to maintain confidentiality, except when disclosure is authorized or legally mandated. The Confidential information includes all non-public information (including private, proprietary, and other) that might be of use to competitors or harmful to the Company or its associates. The use of confidential information for his/her own advantage or profit is also prohibited.

Fair Dealing

Each officer should deal fairly with customers, suppliers, competitors, and employees of group companies. They should not take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of confidential, proprietary or trade secret information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any other unfair dealing-practices.

Officers are required not to enter into agreements, discussions with competitors about any matter relating to competition between the Company and its competitor, such as products, sales prices, marketing strategies, market shares and allocation of market, territories, supply and sources or customers, nor enter into any agreement with competitors that affect prices and constitute illegal price– fixing prohibited under the Competition laws. Competition laws generally address the following areas: pricing practices (including price discrimination), discounting, terms of sale, credit terms, promotional allowances, secret rebates, exclusive dealerships or distributorships, product bundling, restrictions on carrying competing products, termination, and many other practices.

In all contacts with competitors, officers should not discuss pricing policy, contract terms, costs, inventories, marketing and products plans, surveys and studies and other proprietary and confidential information. Discussion of these subjects or collaboration on them with competitors can be illegal. Also, officers should ensure that distributors, dealers, stockist or agents selling the Company' products, should enter into any accepted practices, like bundling of products, discounts on the market price, free gifts etc., only with the express permission of the Company.

Related parties

As a general rule, Officers and Employees should avoid conducting Company business with a relative or with a business in which a relative is associated in any significant role. The Company discourages the employment of relatives of Officers and Employees in positions or assignments within the same Department. Further, the Company prohibits the employment of such individuals in positions that have a financial dependence or influence.

Protection and Proper Use of Company's Assets

All officers should protect Company's assets and property and ensure its efficient use. Theft, carelessness, and waste of the Company's assets and property have a direct impact on the Company's profitability. Company's assets should be used only for legitimate business purposes.

All officers shall have a responsibility to protect the assets of the Company, ensure optimal utilization of assets and to report and record all transactions. All officers should protect the Company' assets from loss, damage, misuse or theft and assets may only be used for business purposes and other purposes specifically approved by management and must never be used for illegal purposes. Officers who have access to proprietary and confidential information must take every precaution to keep it confidential. Every officer should protect the reputation of the Company, its employees and its products. Officers should never make any false or artificial entries in any records.
